Dear Parents and Carers,

Headteacher Appointment – Mr Matt Grantham

We are pleased to inform you that Mr Matt Grantham has been appointed as the new Headteacher of Maiden Erlegh School in Reading, beginning in September 2025.

Mr Grantham brings over 20 years of experience in education and a proven track record of school leadership. He has worked in senior roles including Acting Headteacher and Head of School, and his recent work has involved supporting school improvement across the South East. He knows Reading well, having spent over a decade leading in schools across the borough.

He is a thoughtful, highly capable leader with a passion for creating inclusive, ambitious, and well-supported school communities. His appointment reflects our continued commitment to ensuring that every student at Maiden Erlegh School in Reading receives an outstanding education, both academically and personally.

We are excited for the future and look forward to introducing Mr Grantham to our school community in the autumn term. Please join us in welcoming him.

With best wishes,

Jonathon Peck
Chief Executive Officer
