2026-2027 Programme coming soon!

Please see last year's programme below for details on what could be offered

ENTER DATE	Day of week AUTOMATIC	Year group	Session name	Person running session	Brief description	Single or Multiple session	Frequency of mutiple sessions	Room
10 November 2025	Monday	7	Silver Programme launch event	Mr Tomsett	Parents and students who have been invited to join the Silver Programme will be given an introduction to the programme and a short interactive session on the brain.	S - 5:30-6:30pm		106/107
12 November 2025	Wednesday	8,9,10	Philosophy - Do we live in a simulation?	Mr Greener	Philosophical arguments about whether, if we lived in a virtual world, we could ever know!	S		201
18 November 2025	Tuesday	8,9,10,11	Reading Schools' Climate Conference 2024	Mr Tomsett	8 students will represent our school at the climate conference at the Council offices in Reading. They will represent the countries that normally attend a climate conference. They will need to dedicate at least two hours before the conference for research and there will be an application form advertised closer to the time.	S		Trip
18 November 2025	Tuesday	9,10	Lionheart Challenge - competition at Maiden Erlegh School	Mr Tomsett	A day at Maiden Erlegh School completing the Lionheart Challenge - a business and enterprise challenge for higher ability students. Students who applied successfully will have been sent a letter.	S		Maiden Erlegh School
19 November 2025	Wednesday	11	Applying for short term internship with PwC	Mrs Nave/PwC	Opportunity to find out more about the post yr 11 internship with PwC	S		208
04 December 2025	Thursday	7,8,9,10,11	African Art	Mrs Vacy-Ash	A look at African Art and its importance in the 'Art World'	S		119
07 January 2026	Wednesday	10,11	How do we learn and how can this support our revision?	Mr Mitchell	A session looking at academic research regarding how we learn and then a look at practical steps for how to apply that to revision	S		205
13 January 2026	Tuesday	7,8,9,10,11	What is criminology?	Miss Murray	A session on an introduction to criminology- what does it mean, what does it include, what careers can it lead to? Examples of criminology in the news and their everyday lives	S		205
23 February 2026	Monday	7,8	Ocean waste solution	Mr Tomsett	Looking at the problem of ocean waste and the potential solutions	S		203
23 March 2026	Monday	7,8,9,10	The power of communication and its many forms	Mr Hood	How we communicate and the impact this has on others	S		203
06 May 2026	Wednesday	7,8,9,10,11	Plants and health - herbalism	Miss Hogarth	A session looking into foraging, health benefits of plants and herbs and phytoncides.	S		201
13 May 2026	Wednesday	7,8,9,10,11	Medical and Biological Anthropology	Ms Baxter	A session on the introduction to anthropology as a science and the field of medical anthropology including discussions of real life studies that have had an impact on the medical field.	S		205
01 June 2026	Monday	7,8,9	Maiden Erlegh Independent Project	Mr Tomsett	An independent project investigating their own interest, culminating in a project portfolio including 1500 word essay and presentation evening. More information will follow on this.	M	Every Tuesday for 4 weeks with independent work set each week and over summer.	203
16 June 2026	Tuesday	7,8,9,10,11	What is an Actuary?	Mrs Nave/Lockton Vice President	What is an actuary/what does the job entail/how to I follow this route?	S		208
07 July 2026	Tuesday	7,8,9,10,11	Working with the big 4 accountanc firms - Degree entry and Apprenticeship	Mrs Nave/Speaker from PwC	Working with the big 4 accountanc firms - Degree entry and Apprenticeship	S		208
30/9/2026	Friday	11	Pinewood studios Careers day	Mr Wheeler	Pinewood careers opens its doors to schools and allows groups of up to 30 to tour the film studios where Bond, Tom Holland's Spiderman, Disney's Star Wars and many more films have been produced. Those attending can speak to lighting specialists, Prop design, sound specialists and more	S		Trip